Carol Peters

Carol was born and raised in Cheshire, Connecticut. After high school graduation, she became a Radiologic Technologist and worked in Radiology for several years. She attended Central Connecticut State College and graduated with a degree in Biology. Following graduation, she attended the Illinois College of Optometry and received a Doctor of Optometry degree. Subsequently, she got married, moved to Colorado, and practiced Optometry in Loveland and Greeley for almost 28 years. Now retired, she has been a student of the Denver Catholic Biblical and Catechetical Schools for the past six years, graduating in June 2019. Carol's father was a WWII veteran who served in the South Pacific. Her husband, Jeff, is a combat veteran who was deployed to Iraq for a year (2003-2004) in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. She understands the challenges that exist for spouses and families of veterans.
