

*We Help Veterans & Families
Find More Peace in Their Life*

QUALIFIED LISTENER

Denise Sachs

Denise grew up in the mountains near Boulder and graduated from the University of Colorado with a degree in history. She has four living children and lost a son, an Iraq war veteran to suicide. Denise is a part time funeral assistant and the Service to Veterans Committee Chair for her local chapter of DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution.) She also enjoys volunteering to visit with veterans at the Cheyenne VA hospital, in local nursing homes and for Qualified Listeners.